PART 2 FINANCIAL INTELLIGENCE UNIT

4 Establishment of the Financial Intelligence Unit

The Financial Intelligence Unit is established within the State Law Office.

5 Functions and powers of the Unit

- (1) The Unit has the following functions:
- (a) to receive suspicious transaction reports and other reports, and information, in accordance with the provisions of this Act; and
 - (b) to analyse and assess any report or information refer to under this Act; and
 - (c) to gather information, whether or not it has been requested by the Director from an assisting entity, or a ministry, department or agency of the Government or any person, for the purposes of this Act; and
 - (d) to disclose information derived from any report or information provided to the Director under this Act, to an assisting entity if the Director has reasonable grounds to suspect that the report or information is relevant to:

- (i) the detection, investigation or prosecution of a person for a money laundering offence, a financing of terrorism offence or any other serious offence; or
 - (ii) the commission of a money laundering offence, a financing of terrorism offence or any other serious offence; or
 - (iii) an act preparatory to a financing of terrorism offence; or
 - (iv) the enforcement of this Act, the Proceeds of Crime Act [CAP 284] or any other Act prescribed by the Regulations; and
- (e) to collect information that the Director considers relevant to a money laundering offence, a financing of terrorism offence or any other serious offence, whether or not the information is publicly available, including information in commercially available databases or databases maintained by the Government; and
- (f) to enter into agreements or arrangements under section 6, and exchange information in accordance with those agreements or arrangements; and
- (g) to request information from an assisting entity to assist with any analysis or assessment mentioned in paragraph (b); and
- (h) to direct in writing a reporting entity to take such steps as the Director considers appropriate in relation to any information or report received by the Director so as to facilitate any investigation that is anticipated or being undertaken by the Director or an assisting entity; and
- (i) to undertake inquiries as may be requested in writing by an assisting entity where appropriate; and
- (j) to do checks on any person if requested by the Vanuatu Investment Promotion Authority or a Ministry, Department or agency of the Government; and
- (k) to provide feedback to reporting entities and other relevant persons regarding outcomes relating to the reports or information given under this Act; and
- (l) to conduct research into money laundering and terrorism financing trends and developments and recommend on detecting and deterring measures against money laundering and terrorism financing activities; and
- (m) to carry out examinations of reporting entities to ensure their compliance with this Act; and

(n) to issue guidelines to reporting entities in relation to customer due diligence obligations, record keeping obligation, reporting obligations, identification of suspicious transactions and money laundering and financing of terrorism typologies; and

(o) to provide training programs for reporting entities in relation to customer due diligence obligations, record keeping obligations and reporting obligations;

(p) to compile statistics and records, and to disseminate information within Vanuatu; and

(q) to register reporting entities and screen office bearers of reporting entities; and

(r) to ensure reporting entities comply with this Act and its Regulations; and

(s) to educate the public and create awareness on matters relating to money laundering and the financing of terrorism.

(2) The Unit has the power to do all things that are necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with the performance of its functions.

6 Agreements and arrangements

(1) The Director may, with the written approval of the Minister, enter into a written agreement or arrangement with an assisting entity regarding the exchange of information under this section.

(2) The Minister may only give approval under subsection (1) if the Director and the assisting entity have reasonable grounds to suspect that an information may be relevant to detecting, investigating or prosecuting:

(a) a money laundering offence, a financing of terrorism offence or any other serious offence; or

(b) an offence that is substantially similar to such an offence.

(3) An agreement or arrangement entered into under subsection (1) must:

(a) restrict the use of the information to purposes relevant to investigating or prosecuting a money laundering offence, a financing of terrorism offence or any other serious offence, or an offence that is substantially similar to such an offence; and

(b) stipulate that the information is to be treated in a confidential manner and not to be disclosed without the express consent of the Director and the assisting entity.

(4) In the absence of an agreement or arrangement entered into under subsection (1), the Director may exchange information with an assisting entity having functions and duties similar to those of the Unit, provided that:

(a) the use of the information is restricted to purposes relevant to investigating or prosecuting a money laundering offence, a financing of terrorism offence or any other serious offence, or an offence that is substantially similar to such an offence; and

(b) the information is to be treated in a confidential manner and not to be disclosed without the express consent of the Director and the assisting entity.

7 Appointment of the Director

(1) The Attorney General is to appoint a Director of the Unit.

(2) The Director is to perform the functions and exercise the powers of the Unit specified under this Act.

(3) The Director may authorise in writing, a senior officer of the Unit, subject to any terms and conditions as may be specified by the Director, to carry out any functions or powers of the Director under this Act.

8 Staff of the Unit

(1) The Attorney General may employ other staff of the Unit as he or she considers necessary for the proper and efficient performance of the functions of the Unit.

(2) The Attorney General is to determine the terms and conditions of employment of the persons referred to in subsection (1).

PART 3 REGISTER OF REPORTING ENTITIES

9 Register of reporting entities

(1) The Director must establish and maintain a register of reporting entities.

(2) A reporting entity must not provide a service or establish a business relationship with a customer if its name and details are not entered on the register of reporting entities.

(3) If a reporting entity makes a written application in the prescribed form to the Director for the reporting entity's name and details to be entered on the register of reporting entities, the Director must enter the reporting entity's name and details on the register if the reporting entity's name is not already entered on that register.

(4) If a reporting entity's name or details are entered on the register and the reporting entity has changed its name or details, the reporting entity must inform the Director in writing of the changes made.

(5) A reporting entity who contravenes subsection (2), (3) or (4), commits an offence and is liable on conviction:

(a) in the case of an individual - to a fine not exceeding VT25 million or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years or both; or

(b) in the case of a body corporate - to a fine not exceeding VT100 million.

10 Removal of entries from the register of reporting entities

The Director may remove upon the request of a reporting entity, the name and details of the reporting entity from the register.

11 Access to the register of reporting entities

(1) A reporting entity may request the Director, in writing, to inform the reporting entity whether the name of a specified person is entered on the register of the reporting entities.

(2) The Director must comply with the reporting entity's request as may be prescribed.

PART 4 CUSTOMER DUE DILIGENCE REQUIREMENT

12 Obligation to identify customer

(1) A reporting entity must carry out the prescribed identification process if a person:

(a) opens an account with a reporting entity; or

(b) engages the services of a reporting entity; or

(c) enters into a business relationship with a reporting entity; or

(d) conducts an occasional transaction that exceeds the prescribed threshold under section 27 or 28.

(2) A reporting entity must carry out a prescribed identification process on:

- (a) a person conducting a transaction; and
- (b) a person on whose behalf a transaction is being conducted; and
- (c) a beneficial owner,

if the reporting entity has reasonable grounds to believe that the person is undertaking a transaction on behalf of another person.

(3) A reporting entity must carry out a prescribed identification process on the customer if the reporting entity:

- (a) carries out an electronic currency transfer for the customer, other than an electronic currency transfer referred to under subsection 37(2) or (4); or
- (b) suspects that the customer is involved in proceeds of crime, a financing of terrorism or a serious offence; or
- (c) suspects that the transaction involves proceeds of crime, or may be used for financing terrorism or for committing a serious offence; or
- (d) has doubts on the veracity or adequacy of the customer identification or information it had previously obtained.

(4) A reporting entity who contravenes subsection (1), (2) or (3), commits an offence and is liable on conviction:

- (a) in the case of an individual - to a fine not exceeding VT2,500,000, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or both; or
- (b) in the case of a body corporate - to a fine not exceeding VT10,000,000.

13 Necessity of due diligence to conduct transaction

(1) If satisfactory evidence of the identity or verification of a person is not produced to or obtained by a reporting entity under this Part within a prescribed timeframe and under a prescribed circumstance, a reporting entity must prepare a suspicious transaction report for the Director as if the transaction were a transaction made under section 20.

(2) The reporting entity must not proceed any further with the transaction unless directed to do so by the Director.

(3) A reporting entity who contravenes subsection (1) or (2), commits an offence and is liable on conviction:

- (a) in the case of an individual - to a fine not exceeding VT2,500,000, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or both; or

(b) in the case of a body corporate - to a fine not exceeding VT10,000,000.

14 Reporting entity to maintain business relationship under true name

(1) A reporting entity must maintain an account or establish a business relationship with the true name of the customer.

(2) A reporting entity who contravenes subsection (1), commits an offence and is liable on conviction:

(a) in the case of an individual - to a fine not exceeding VT2,500,000, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or both; or

(b) in the case of a corporate body - to a fine not exceeding VT10,000,000.

15 Establishing a business relationship under false or misleading names

(1) A reporting entity must not:

(a) establish a business relationship with a person using a false, fictitious or misleading name; and

(b) open an account with a person using one of the person's name, if the person has 2 or more different names, unless the person has disclosed the other name or names to the reporting entity.

(2) If a person is using a particular name in the person's dealings with a reporting entity and discloses to it a different name or names under which the person is commonly known, the reporting entity must:

(a) make a record of the disclosure of the persons name; and

(b) give the Director a copy of that record if requested to do so in writing by the Director.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a person establishes a business relationship in a false name if the person:

(a) in establishing the business relationship uses a name other than a name in which the person is commonly known; or

(b) does any act or thing in relation to the business relationship (whether by way of making a deposit or withdrawal or by way of communication with the reporting entity concerned or otherwise) and, in doing so, uses a name other than a name by which the person is commonly known.

(4) A reporting entity who contravenes subsection (1) or (2), commits an offence and is liable on conviction:

(a) in the case of an individual - to a fine of not exceeding VT 10 million or imprisonment for a term of not exceeding 4 years or both; or

(b) in the case of a body corporate – to a fine of not more than VT 50 million.

16 Obligation to verify the identification of customer

(1) A reporting entity must undertake a prescribed verification process within a prescribed timeframe if after carrying out or purporting to carry out the prescribed customer identification process:

(a) a prescribed event happens; or

(b) a prescribed circumstance comes into existence; or

(c) a prescribed period ends.

(2) A reporting entity who contravenes subsection (1), commits an offence and is liable on conviction:

(a) in the case of an individual – to a fine not exceeding VT 1 million or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 1 year, or both; or

(b) in the case of a body corporate – to a fine not exceeding VT 5 million.

17 Obligation to conduct regular customer and transaction due diligence

(1) A reporting entity must undertake a prescribed on-going due diligence process to monitor its account, service or relationship with each of its customers to identify, mitigate and manage the risk it may reasonably face with its customer that might involve money laundering, financing of terrorism or other serious offences.

(2) In addition to subsection (1), a reporting entity must:

(a) record its findings in writing; and

(b) upon a written request by the Director, make available such findings to the Director.

(3) A reporting entity who fails to comply with subsections (1) and (2), commits an offence and is liable on conviction:

(a) in the case of an individual – to a fine not exceeding VT 1 million or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 1 year, or both; or

(b) in the case of a body corporate – to a fine not exceeding VT 5 million.

18 Obligation for intermediaries or third parties introducers

(1) If a reporting entity relies on intermediary or a third party to undertake its obligations under this Part or to introduce customers to it, the reporting entity must:

(a) satisfy itself that the intermediary or third party is regulated and supervised, and has measures in place to comply with the requirements under this Part and Part 5; and

(b) ensure that copies of identification data and other relevant documentation relating to the requirements under this Part is made available to the intermediary or the third party upon request without delay; and

(c) immediately obtain the information required under this Part.

(2) In addition to subsection (1), a reporting entity must:

(a) record its finding in writing; and

(b) upon a written request by the Director, make available such findings to the Director.

(3) A reporting entity who fails to comply with subsections (1) and (2), commits an offence and is liable on conviction:

(a) in the case of an individual – to a fine not exceeding VT 1 million or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 1 year, or both; or

(b) in the case of a body corporate – to a fine not exceeding VT 5 million.

PART 5 RECORD KEEPING REQUIREMENT

19 Obligation to keep records

(1) A reporting entity must keep records of all transactions in such a manner as to enable the transactions to be readily reconstructed at any time by the Director.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the records must contain the prescribed information.

(3) A reporting entity must keep the records for a period of 6 years after the completion of the transaction.

(4) A reporting entity must keep:

- (a) a record of any suspicious transaction, suspicious activity or other report made under Part 6; and
- (b) a record of any enquiry relating to money laundering or the financing of terrorism made to the Director; and
- (c) a record of a finding referred to under subsection 18(2).

(5) A reporting entity must keep records provided under subsection (4) for a period of 6 years after the date on which the report or the enquiry was made.

(6) A reporting entity must keep:

- (a) if evidence of a person's identity and verification is obtained under Part 4:
 - (i) a record that indicates the kind of evidence that was obtained; and
 - (ii) either a copy of the evidence or information that enables a copy of it to be obtained; and

(b) a record referred to under subsections 15(2) and 17(2).

(7) A reporting entity must keep records provided under subsection (6) for a period of 6 years after the closure or termination of the account, service or business relationship.

(8) A reporting entity must make:

- (a) a record of the adoption of an AML and CFT Procedure Manual; and
- (b) retain the AML and CFT Procedure Manual for a period of 12 months.

(9) A reporting entity who contravenes subsection (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7) or (8) commits an offence and is liable on conviction:

- (a) in the case of an individual - to a fine not exceeding VT2,500,000, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or both; or
- (b) in the case of a body corporate - to a fine not exceeding VT10,000,000.

20 Obligation to report suspicious transaction

- (1) A reporting entity must make a report of the transaction or attempted transaction to the Director not later than 2 working days if the reporting entity suspects or has reasonable grounds to suspect that a transaction or attempted transaction involves proceeds of crime or is related to terrorist financing.
- (2) The reporting entity must not proceed any further with the transaction unless directed to do so by the Director.
- (3) A reporting entity who fails without reasonable excuse to comply with subsection (1) or (2), commits an offence and is liable on conviction:
- (a) in the case of an individual - to a fine not exceeding VT25,000,000, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years, or both; or

 - (j) safekeeping and administration of currency, bearer negotiable instruments or liquid securities on behalf of other persons;
 - (k) investing, administering or managing funds or money on behalf of other persons;
 - (l) underwriting and placement of insurance, including insurance intermediation by agents and brokers;
 - (m) money and currency changing.
- (2) To avoid doubt, this Part also applies to the agents of reporting entities that transfer money or value.

37A Overview of customer due diligence for electronic currency transfers

- (1) A reporting entity that is required to conduct customer due diligence in the circumstances described in section 37B, 37C, 37D or 37E is not required to verify any documents, data or information that it has previously verified for the purposes of carrying out customer due diligence under Part 4 and any other provision of this Act.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if there are reasonable grounds for the reporting entity to doubt the adequacy or veracity of the documents, data or information previously obtained.

37B Requirements for originating entity-electronic currency transfer

- (1) This section applies to a reporting entity if the entity receives a request from a person (the sender) to execute an electronic currency transfer of an amount in currency equal to or greater than VT 100,000 (the originating entity).

- (2) Subject to subsection (3), if a request is made to execute an electronic currency transfer, the originating entity must, in the case of a domestic electronic currency transfer or an international electronic currency transfer, identify the sender of the transfer by obtaining the following identity information:
- (a) the sender's full name;
 - (b) the sender's account number or such other identifying information that allows the transaction to be traced back to the sender;
 - (c) any one of the following:
 - (i) the sender's address;
 - (ii) the sender's customer identification number;
 - (iii) the sender's place and date of birth;
 - (iv) the sender's passport number;
 - (v) the sender's national identity card number.
- (3) In relation to a domestic electronic currency transfer, an originating entity may identify the sender by obtaining:
- (a) the sender's account number; or
 - (b) other information prescribed in Regulations;

if the sender's account number or the other identifying information allows the transaction to be traced back to the sender, and the originating entity is able to provide the information specified in paragraphs (2)(a) and (c) within 3 working days of a request being made by the beneficiary entity or the Unit.

- (4) If a request is made to execute an electronic currency transfer, the originating entity must, in the case of an international currency transfer, identify the receiver of the electronic currency transfer by obtaining the following identity information:
 - (a) the receiver's full name;
 - (b) the receiver's account number or other identifying information that allows the transaction to be traced back to the receiver.
- (5) An originating entity must verify the sender's identity so that it is satisfied that the information obtained under subsection (2) is correct.
- (6) An originating entity must verify the sender's identity before ordering the electronic currency transfer.
- (7) If several individual currency transfers from a single sender are put in one file for transmission to multiple receivers, the originating entity must ensure that the file contains:
 - (a) required and verified sender information, and required receiver information that is traceable within the receiver country; and
 - (b) either:
 - (i) the sender's account number; or
 - (ii) other information prescribed in Regulations;which allows the transaction to be traced back to the sender.
- (8) An originating entity must transmit with the electronic currency transfer:
 - (a) the identity information about the sender that it has obtained under subsection (2) and verified under subsection (5); and
 - (b) in the case of an international currency transfer - the identity information about the receiver that it has obtained under subsection (4).

- (9) An originating entity must not execute a currency transfer if the information requirements under subsection (8) are not met.
- (10) An originating entity must retain records of all sender and receiver information that accompanies an electronic currency transfer and must comply with the record keeping requirements in Part 5.
- (11) If a reporting entity contravenes subsection (2), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9) or (10), the reporting entity commits an offence punishable upon conviction by:
 - (a) in the case of an individual - a fine not exceeding VT 25 million or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 15 years, or both; or
 - (b) in the case of a body corporate - a fine not exceeding VT 125 million.

37C Requirements for originating entity-electronic currency transfer of less than VT 100,000

- (1) This section applies to a reporting entity if the reporting entity receives a request from a person (the sender) to execute an international electronic currency transfer of an amount in currency less than VT 100,000 (the originating entity).
- (2) In identifying the sender of the transfer, an originator entity must obtain the following identity information:
 - (a) the name of the sender;
 - (b) either:
 - (i) the sender's account number; or
 - (ii) other information prescribed in Regulations;which allows the transaction to be traced back to the sender.
- (3) If an originating entity has a suspicion of money laundering or terrorist financing, the originating entity must:

- (a) verify the information obtained in relation to the sender; and
 - (b) file a suspicious transaction report or suspicious activity report.
- (4) In identifying the receiver of the transaction, an originating entity must obtain the following identity information:
- (a) the name of the receiver;
 - (b) either:
 - (i) the receiver's account number; or
 - (ii) other identifying information prescribed by the Regulations;
- which allows the transaction to be traced back to the receiver.
- (5) The originating entity must transmit with the electronic currency transfer the information the originating entity has obtained under subsections (2) and (4).
- (6) The originating entity must not execute the currency transfer if the originating entity cannot meet the information requirements under subsections (2), (3) and (4).
- (7) An originating entity must retain records of all sender and receiver information required to be obtained under subsections (2), (3) and (4) and must comply with the record keeping requirements in Part 5.
- (8) If a reporting entity contravenes subsection (2), (3), (4), (5), (6) or (7), the reporting entity commits an offence punishable upon conviction by:
- (a) in the case of an individual - a fine not exceeding VT 25 million or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 15 years, or both; or
 - (b) in the case of a body corporate - a fine not exceeding VT 125 million.

37D Requirements for intermediary entity-electronic currency transfer

- (1) This section applies to a reporting entity that receives a request to act as an intermediary in an electronic currency transfer of an amount in currency equal to or greater than VT 100,000 (an intermediary entity).
- (2) Subject to subsection (6), an intermediary entity must transmit all of the identity information that it receives under subsection 37B(4) from the originating entity with the electronic currency transfer.
- (3) An intermediary entity must take reasonable measures to identify international electronic currency transfers that lack any of the information required under section 37B.
- (4) An intermediary entity must have risk based policies and procedures for determining:
 - (a) when to execute, reject or suspend an electronic currency transfer which lacks any of the information required under section 37B to accompany the transfer; and
 - (b) follow up actions to be taken.
- (5) An intermediary entity must retain records of all sender and receiver information that accompanies an electronic currency transfer and must comply with the record keeping requirements in Part 5.
- (6) If a reporting entity contravenes subsection (2), (3), (4) or (5), the reporting entity commits an offence punishable upon conviction by:
 - (a) in the case of an individual - a fine not exceeding VT 25 million or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 15 years, or both; or
 - (b) in the case of a body corporate - a fine not exceeding VT 125 million.

37E Requirements for beneficiary entity-electronic currency transfer

- (1) This section applies to a reporting entity that receives a request to receive an electronic currency transfer of an amount in currency equal to or greater than VT 100,000 on behalf of a receiver (beneficiary entity).

- (2) A beneficiary entity must verify the receiver's identity so that it is satisfied that the information obtained by an originating entity under subsection 37B(4) is correct.
- (3) A beneficiary entity must take reasonable measures to identify international electronic currency transfers that lack any of the information required under sections 37B and 37C to accompany an international currency transfer.
- (4) A beneficiary entity must have risk based policies and procedures for determining:
 - (a) when to execute, reject or suspend an electronic currency transfer which lacks any of the information required under sections 37B, 37C and 37D to accompany the transfer; and
 - (b) follow up actions to be taken.
- (5) A beneficiary entity must retain records of all sender and receiver information that accompanies an electronic currency transfer and must comply with the record keeping requirements in Part 5.
- (6) If a reporting entity contravenes subsection (2), (3), (4) or (5), the reporting entity commits an offence punishable upon conviction by:
 - (a) in the case of an individual - a fine not exceeding VT 25 million or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 15 years , or both; or
 - (b) in the case of a body corporate - a fine not exceeding VT 125 million.

37F Addition information and exemption

The Regulations may:

- (a) prescribe additional information required to be provided by reporting entities to which this Part applies; or
- (b) exempt reporting entities to which this Part applies from obligations to obtain some or all information required by this Part in relation to specified transfers.

37G Other requirements for reporting entities

- (1) This provision applies to a reporting entity that provides a money or value transfer service.
- (2) If a reporting entity controls both the sending and the receiving side of an electronic currency transfer, the reporting entity must:
 - (a) take into account all information required to be obtained under sections 37B, 37C and 37D relating to the sender and the receiver in order to determine whether a suspicious transaction or suspicious activity report should be filed; and
 - (b) file a suspicious transaction report in any country affected by the electronic currency transfer.
- (3) A reporting entity must have policies and procedures in place to ensure that they do not contravene prohibitions under Part 3 of the United Nations Financial Sanctions Act No. 6 of 2017.”

40AA Disclosure of information relating to suspicious transaction reports and suspicious activity reports

- (1) This section applies in respect of all or any of the following information:
 - (a) any suspicious transaction report or suspicious activity report;
 - (b) any information the disclosure of which will identify, or is reasonably likely to identify, any person:
 - (i) as a person who, in his or her capacity as an officer or employee of a reporting entity, has handled a transaction in respect of which a suspicious transaction report or suspicious activity report was made; or

- (ii) as a person who has prepared a suspicious transaction report or suspicious activity report; or
 - (iii) as a person who has made a suspicious transaction report or suspicious activity report;
 - (c) any information that discloses, or is reasonably likely to disclose, the existence of a suspicious transaction report or suspicious activity report.
- (2) The Unit or a supervisor may disclose information to which this section applies only for law enforcement purposes.
- (3) No person may disclose, in any civil or criminal proceeding, any information to which this section applies unless the court concerned is satisfied that the disclosure of the information is necessary in the interests of justice.”

“Part 10AA Enforcement

50A Enforcement measures

If the Director has reasonable grounds to believe that a reporting entity has failed to comply with an obligation under this Act, the Director may do all or any of the following acts:

- (a) issue a formal warning under section 50B;
- (b) issue a penalty notice under section 50C;
- (c) accept an enforceable undertaking under section 50D and seek an order from the Court for breach of that undertaking under section 50E;
- (d) seek a performance injunction from the Court under section 50F;
- (e) seek a restraining injunction from the Court under section 50G;
- (f) publish a notice of non-compliance under section 50H;
- (g) direct a reporting entity to remove a director, manager, secretary or other officer under section 50I.

50B Formal warning

- (1) The Director may issue a formal warning to a reporting entity if the Director has reasonable grounds to believe that the reporting entity has engaged in conduct that has contravened a requirement of this Act.
- (2) A formal warning may specify any remedial action that the Director believes the reporting entity should take.
- (3) The Director may publish in the Gazette a formal warning issued to the reporting entity.

50C Penalty Notice

- (1) The Director may serve a penalty notice on a reporting entity if the Director believes on reasonable grounds that the reporting entity has engaged in conduct which constitutes an offence under this Act.
- (2) If the Director intends to issue a penalty notice, it must do so as soon as possible after it has become aware that the reporting entity has engaged in, or may engage in, conduct which constitutes an offence under this Act.
- (3) The penalty notice must require the person to pay a penalty not exceeding:
 - (a) VT 200,000 for an individual; or
 - (b) VT 1 million for a body corporate;as stated in the notice within 30 days after the date the notice was served.
- (4) If the amount of penalty referred to in subsection (3) for an alleged offence is paid, that person is not liable to any further proceedings for the alleged offence.
- (5) Payment made under this section is not to be regarded as an admission of liability for the purpose of, nor in any way affect or prejudice, any proceeding arising out of the same occurrence.
- (6) The Director may publish a penalty notice issued to a person in such manner as the Director determines.
- (7) If a penalty notice has been served on a person, a prosecution in respect of the alleged offence may only be commenced if the penalty remains unpaid 30 days after the penalty was due, and the Court may take account of any unpaid penalty when imposing a penalty in respect of the alleged offence.
- (8) This section does not limit the operation of any other provision of, or made under, this or any other Act relating to proceedings that may be taken in respect of offences.

50D Enforceable undertaking

- (1) The Director may request a written undertaking from a reporting entity in connection with compliance with this Act.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), a written undertaking may relate to an activity of a reporting entity or to an officer, employee, agent or a group of officers, employees or agents of the reporting entity.
- (3) A reporting entity may give the Director a written undertaking in connection with compliance with this Act.
- (4) The terms of an undertaking under this section must be lawful and in compliance with this Act.

50E Enforcement of undertaking

- (1) If the Director considers that a reporting entity has breached one or more of the terms of an undertaking it provided under section 50D, the Director may apply to the Court for an order under subsection (2).
- (2) If the Court is satisfied that:
 - (a) the reporting entity has breached one or more of the terms of its undertaking; and
 - (b) the undertaking was relevant to the reporting entity's obligation under this Act;

the Court may make an order directing the reporting entity to comply with any of the terms of the undertaking.

50F Performance injunctions

- (1) The Director may apply to the Court for an injunction requiring a person to do an act or thing in order to comply with this Act.
- (2) In addition to an application under subsection (1), the Court may grant an injunction requiring a person to do an act or thing under this Act if it is satisfied that:

- (a) the person has refused or failed, or is refusing or failing, or is proposing to refuse or fail, to do an act or thing; and
 - (b) the refusal or failure was, is or would be a contravention of this Act.
- (3) An injunction granted by the Court under subsection (2) may relate to an officer, employee or agent, or a group of officers, employees or agents of the reporting entity.
- (4) An application made under subsection (1) may be made ex parte, and the Court may grant an interim injunction under subsection (2) without the defendant being heard when the Court considers it appropriate to do so.

50G Restraining injunctions

- (1) The Director may apply to the Court for an injunction restraining a person from engaging in conduct in contravention of this Act.
- (2) In addition to an application under subsection (1), the Court may grant an injunction restraining a person from engaging in conduct in contravention of this Act if it is satisfied that:
- (a) a person has engaged, is engaging or is proposing to engage, in any conduct; and
 - (b) the conduct was, is or would be a contravention of this Act.
- (3) An injunction under subsection (2) may relate to an officer, employee or agent, or a group of officers, employees or agents of the reporting entity.
- (4) An application made under subsection (1) may be made ex parte, and the Court may grant an interim injunction under subsection (2) without the defendant being heard if the Court considers it appropriate to do so.

50H Notice of non-compliance

- (1) If the Court has granted an injunction under section 50F or 50G, the Director may publish a notice in the Gazette which sets out the details of the reporting entity's non-compliance and any remedial action ordered by the Court.

- (2) If the reporting entity has failed to comply with an injunction granted by the Court under section 50F or 50G, the Director may publish a notice of that non-compliance and any other remedial action as ordered by the Court.

50I Power to remove a director, manager, secretary or other officer of a reporting entity

- (1) The Director may in writing direct a reporting entity to remove a person who is a director, manager, secretary or other officer of the reporting entity if the Director is satisfied that the person is a disqualified person within the meaning of section 50J.
- (2) Before issuing a direction, the Director must give to the reporting entity a written notice requiring the reporting entity and the person proposed to be removed to make submissions to the Director on the matter within a reasonable period specified in the notice.
- (3) The Director must review any submission received and decide whether or not to issue the direction.
- (4) A direction takes effect on the day specified in the direction, which must be at least 7 days after it is made.
- (5) If the Director directs a reporting entity to remove a person, the Director must give a copy of the direction to the person removed.
- (6) If a reporting entity fails to comply with a direction, the reporting entity commits an offence punishable upon conviction by:
- (a) in the case of an individual – a fine not exceeding VT 25 million or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 15 years, or both; or
 - (b) in the case of a body corporate – a fine not exceeding VT 125 million.

50J Disqualified person

- (1) A person is a disqualified person if, at any time, the person:
- (a) has been convicted of an offence under this Act; or

- (b) has been a director or directly concerned in the management of a reporting entity in Vanuatu or any other country which has had its licence revoked or has been wound up by the Court; or
 - (c) has been convicted by a court for an offence involving dishonesty; or
 - (d) is or becomes bankrupt; or
 - (e) has applied to take the benefit of a law for the relief of bankrupt or insolvent debtors; or
 - (f) has compounded with his or her creditors; or
 - (g) is listed on a United Nations financial sanctions list, a financial sanctions list under the United Nations Financial Sanctions Act No. 6 of 2017 or a financial sanctions list under the law of any jurisdiction; or
 - (h) does not meet any other fit and proper criteria prescribed by the Regulations.
- (2) A disqualified person must not act or continue to act as a director, manager, secretary or other officer of any reporting entity unless the Director gives his or her written approval for the person to do so.
- (3) If a person contravenes subsection (2), the person commits an offence punishable upon conviction by:
- (a) in the case of an individual – a fine not exceeding VT 15 million or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years, or both; or
 - (b) in the case of a body corporate – a fine not exceeding VT 75 million.”

A person is not liable to any civil or criminal action or other proceeding or damages for or in respect of an act done or omitted to be done in good faith in the exercise or purported exercise of a power, or the performance or purported performance of a function, duty or obligation conferred on him or her by this Act.”

80 Transitional provisions for unregulated reporting entities

- (1) This provision applies to a reporting entity if immediately before the commencement of this Act, the reporting entity:
- (a) was not regulated by a domestic regulatory authority; and
 - (b) had not provided the Director with details of any or all of its key persons or the source of funds used to pay its capital, or both (“additional information”).
- (2) The reporting entity must provide the Director with the additional information within 6 months after the commencement of this Act.

- (3) If a reporting entity does not provide the additional information as required under subsection (2), the Director may by notice in writing to the reporting entity remove the reporting entity from the register.
- (4) If a reporting entity does provide the additional information in relation to key persons as required under subsection (2), but the Director is not satisfied that the key persons of the reporting entity are fit and proper persons to fulfil the responsibilities of their position having regard to:
- (a) whether any of the key persons of the reporting entity:
 - (i) have been convicted of an offence or are subject to any criminal proceedings; or
 - (ii) are listed on a United Nations financial sanctions list, a financial sanctions list under the United Nations Financial Sanctions Act No. 6 of 2017 or a financial sanctions list under the law of any jurisdiction; and
 - (b) any fit and proper criteria prescribed by the Regulations;
- the Director may by notice in writing to the reporting entity remove the reporting entity from the register.
- (5) If a reporting entity does provide the additional information in relation to the source of funds used to pay its capital as required under subsection (2), but the Director is not satisfied that the source of funds so used is acceptable, the Director may by notice in writing to the reporting entity remove the reporting entity from the register.
- (6) Before removing a reporting entity from the register under subsection (3) (4) or (5), the Director must give written notice to the reporting entity that it proposes to remove the reporting entity from the register and the reasons for the removal.
- (7) The reporting entity may, within 14 days after receiving a notice under subsection (6), give the Director written reasons why the reporting entity should not be removed from the register.
- (8) The Director may remove a reporting entity from the register:

- (a) if the reporting entity does not give the Director reasons under subsection (7); or
 - (b) having taken into account the reporting entity's reasons, the Director is of the opinion that the reporting entity has failed to show good cause why the reporting entity should not be removed from the register.
- (9) A term or expression used in this provision has the same meaning as in the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act No. 13 of 2014 as amended by this Act.
