“6. Issuing of certificate of registered negotiator

(1) A person must not enter into negotiations with any custom owners concerning land unless that person applies to the Chairperson of the Committee and receives a certificate from the Minister certifying that person as a registered negotiator.

(2) The Minister may only issue a negotiator’s certificate under subsection (1) on the recommendation of the Committee.

(3) A negotiator’s certificate issued by the Minister must:

(a) name the individual or group or other entity who are the registered negotiators;
and

(b) be in the prescribed form; and

(c) describe the boundaries of the land in which the approval to negotiate relates, by sketch map ; and

(d) include an Environmental Impact Assessment as required under the Environmental Management and Conservation Act; and

(e) specify:

(i) any conditions imposed under subsection 6I(2); and

(ii) the procedures which must be followed by the approved negotiator in the conduct of negotiations; and

(f) be served by the Chairperson of the Committee on:

(i) the approved negotiator; and

(ii) the custom owners in the manner suggested by them; and

(iii) the National Coordinator.

(4) A negotiation is void and of no legal effect if it is carried out in breach of the procedures set out in subsections (2) and (3).

6A. Application for a negotiator's certificate

(1) A person who intends to commence negotiations with custom owners must apply in the prescribed form for a negotiator's certificate to the Chairperson of the Committee. The application must be accompanied with the prescribed application fee.

(2) If the Committee determines that the project is a commercial development the Committee, in consultation with the National Coordinator, may levy an additional fee to cover all reasonable costs associated with the consultation process.

(3) An applicant for a negotiator's certificate must provide 2 copies of the application to the Chairperson of the Committee. The application must be in Bislama and is to contain the following information:

(a) the name of the individual or group or other entity applying for the negotiator's certificate; and

(b) a detailed description of the land to which the approval to negotiate relates, including a sketch map showing the boundaries of the land, the size of the proposed leased area and the location of the area; and

(c) a general description of the type of proposed development including information on:

(i) how the custom owners will participate in the project (including any joint venture or other arrangements);

(ii) what (if any), benefits will accrue to custom owners (including any employment or benefit sharing opportunities that will be available as a result of the development);

(iii) how the proposed development will be funded, including an estimation of the expenditure associated with any capital investment of the proposed development;

(iv) what evidence is available to prove that the applicant has a good commercial reputation;

(v) what other development approvals or permissions have been obtained or may be required.

(4) A person must not survey an area of land unless that person has a negotiator's certificate.

(5) The Chairperson must as soon as possible, upon receipt of an application made in accordance with subsection (3), submit the application to the Committee for its consideration.

(6) In considering an application for a negotiator's certificate, the Committee must take into consideration the following matters:

(a) any planning implications related to the development, such as road access, sufficient water supply, sewerage and waste disposal; and

(b) any environmental implications likely to result from the development (including any Environmental Impact Assessments as required under the Environmental Management and Conservation Act) and all approvals that will be sought in connection with such implications; and

(c) any possible access issues, including what access custom owners and members of the public will have to roads, foreshores, gardens, beaches, sea, rivers, lakes, cultural sites and places of historical interest after the lease is registered.

(7) The Committee must consider the application and if it is satisfied, having regard to the matters set out in subsections (3) and (6) and any other relevant matter, that the application for negotiator's certificate should be approved, refer the application to the National Coordinator of Land Dispute Management to complete a custom owners identification in accordance with section 6B.

(8) If the Committee is not satisfied that the application should be approved, the Committee may either:

(a) request additional information from the applicant; or

(b) refuse the application and must state the reason for refusing the application.

(9) The refusal of an application by the Committee is final however the applicant may re-apply for a negotiator's certificate in relation to the same area of land.

(10) The Committee must give the applicant, written notice of its decision within 10 days after making the decision.

6B. Identification of custom owners or disputing groups

(1) Upon receiving an application to approve a negotiator's certificate being referred under section 6A, the National Coordinator must determine if the custom owners are already identified by a recorded interest in land in accordance with the Custom Land Management Act.

(2) If the custom owners are not identified by a recorded interest in land under the Custom Land Management Act, the National Coordinator is to:

(a) arrange for a notice to be given of the intention to identify the custom owners of the land which is the subject of the application, in the following manner:

(i) on at least 3 occasions in 1 month, a notice in English, French and Bislama:

(A) is to be broadcasted on the radio at the time of the announcement of service messages; and

(B) is to be published as part of a table produced by the Director of Lands in the newspaper which includes with it a short description of the area of location, size of land and nearby localities, for all applications for a negotiator's certificate for the month; and

(ii) direct the responsible custom land officer to make arrangements to place the notice at the Local Government Council headquarters, the nearest Area Council headquarters, the nearest Sub-Area Council headquarters (if applicable) and at any village or villages located near the land for at least 1 month; and

(iii) direct the responsible custom land officer to make arrangements to place the notice on the land to which the approval to negotiate relates for at least 1 month requiring all persons having an interest in the land to notify the custom land officer; and

(iv) if there is a determination of custom owners, the National Coordinator must also ensure that the custom owners listed in the determination are also notified; and

(b) when the notification period has lapsed, allocate a custom land officer to facilitate the identification of the custom owners in accordance with the provisions of the Custom Land Management Act.

(3) The notice referred to in subparagraph (2)(a) (i) must identify the land in a manner that will be understood by the people of that island and require all persons having an interest in the land to notify the custom land officer who is responsible for that area or the office of the National Coordinator.

(4) The signage associated with the notice in subparagraph (2)(a)(iii) must:

(a) be in large black font on a white background; and

(b) be placed facing the nearest public road or pathway; and

(c) measure at least 2 meters long and 1 meter wide; and

(d) include all details associated with the application for a negotiator's certificate.

(5) If:

(a) there is no dispute as to ownership of the land - the custom land officer must proceed in accordance with Part 3 of the Custom Land Management Act; or

(b) there is a dispute as to ownership of the land - the custom land officer must apply Part 4, 5 or 6 of the Custom Land Management Act.

(6) The custom land officer is required to attend meetings in accordance with the process outlined in section 6C and furnish a full report to the National Coordinator.

6C. Consultation with the custom owners

(1) If:

(a) there is no dispute as to ownership of a land, membership of the custom owner group is to be determined by the recorded interest in land; or

(b) there is a dispute as to ownership of land, a meeting with each of the disputing parties or custom owner groups must be convened after the notification period in section 6B has lapsed.

(2) At the first consultation meeting with the custom owner group or each custom owner group that is a party to a dispute, the custom land officer must:

(a) provide the custom owners with 4 copies of the application for the negotiator's certificate. Four different custom owners, including where possible one woman, must sign the prescribed form to show that they have received copies of the application for the negotiator's certificate; and

(b) address the meeting of the custom owners in person and in Bislama or in the local vernacular language where possible, and read aloud all details included in the application for the negotiator's certificate in accordance with subsection 6A(3).

(3) If the announcement by the custom land officer under paragraph (2) (b) is made in Bislama, the custom land officer must arrange for a person who does not have any conflict of interest in relation to the application, to translate the announcement into the local vernacular.

(4) At the conclusion of the first meeting the custom land officer must ask the custom owners if they intend to consider the application for a negotiator's certificate, in which case a further meeting will be scheduled within 28 days from the date on which the first meeting ended.

(5) The custom owners may seek legal or any other advice at any time during this consultation process and may seek to have any representatives in attendance at any meeting with the custom land officer.

(6) An applicant for a negotiator's certificate, or their representative, must not be present at any of the meetings conducted by the custom land officer with the custom owners.

(7) To avoid doubt, negotiations between an applicant for a negotiator's certificate and the custom owners cannot commence until the application for a negotiator's certificate is granted.

(8) If the custom owners having considered the details included in the negotiator's certificate, do not consent to any further negotiations over the lease, their decision is final. The decision may not be set aside or varied by the Committee or the Minister. However applicants can re-apply for a negotiator's certificate over the same area of land.

6D Custom owners' consultation report

(1) The custom land officer is responsible to prepare a custom owners' consultation report which must state:

(a) the date and time of any meetings of custom owners and the names of all people in attendance at the meetings; and

(b) the location of the meetings; and

(c) the decision recorded as the outcome of the meetings; and

(d) information on whether the custom owners gave their free prior informed consent to the lease negotiations;

(2) If custom owners have given their consent, the report must state:

(a) how and by whom negotiations are to be conducted on behalf of the custom owners;

(b) who is to be regarded as the contact person for all materials to be delivered to the custom owner group;

(c) any preferred meeting arrangements being suggested by the custom owners.

6E Report of the custom land officer

The National Coordinator, upon receiving a report from the relevant custom land officer, must:

(a) if there is no dispute as to ownership of the land, or the dispute has been resolved- present to the Committee:

(i) a copy of the recorded interest in land of the custom owners identified as owning the land with the name of each member of the group; and

(ii) a written custom owners' consultation report that states whether the custom owners gave their free, prior and informed consent to negotiate a lease arrangement over their land with the applicant in accordance with the process set out in section 6C.

(b) if there is a dispute as to ownership of the land or the land is the subject of a nakamal or custom area land tribunal proceeding or other legal proceeding – direct the custom land officer to:

(i) contact each of the disputing groups and hold meetings in accordance with the process set out in section 6C; and

(ii) record the names of all members of each custom owner group and the name of each individual in attendance at the meeting; and

(iii) furnish a full report to the Committee from each of the custom owner groups that states whether the custom owners gave their free, prior and informed consent to negotiate a lease arrangement over their land with the applicant in accordance with the process set out in section 6C.

6F. Consent for issuing of a negotiator's certificate

(1) If consent is required from a custom owner group, all members or representatives of the group identified in the recorded interest in the land must agree by consensus to the application for a negotiator's certificate being approved by the Minister. The recorded interest in land must be attached to the custom land officer's report.

(2) If there is a dispute as to ownership of the land or the land is the subject of a nakamal or custom area land tribunal proceedings or legal proceeding and a recorded interest in land has not been completed or is the subject of an appeal, the custom owner's consultation report must state, with respect to each of the parties of the dispute, whether the potential custom owners of the land agree by consensus to negotiate a lease arrangement over their land with the applicant.

(3) Membership of the custom owner group must be determined according to the rules of custom and by customary processes and is to include all indigenous citizens (men, women and children) who hold ownership or use rights over land in accordance with the rules of custom.

(4) At a meeting referred to in this section, each of the parties to the dispute must record in writing the details of the membership of the custom owner group or groups, including which families, groups or individuals are recognised as having interests in the land, and what interests in the land such families, groups or individuals have.

(5) The details provided under subsection (4) by each of the parties to the dispute must be read to the custom owners by the custom land officer and the group must agree by consensus that this is the true and correct membership of the custom owner group.

6G Appointing representatives for custom owners

(1) If the custom owners or each of the disputing groups consent to the issuing of a negotiator's certificate by the Minister, the custom owners or each of the disputing groups must also decide, during a meeting with the custom land officer, which persons should be recognised on any negotiator's certificate, potential lease instrument or other legal document relating to dealings in the land, as the representatives of the custom owners or each of the disputing groups.

(2) If the number of custom owners or members of the disputing group:

(a) is less than 15 -the names of all the members should be stated in the negotiator's certificate and any subsequent lease instrument; or

(b) is more than 15 -at least 15 names must be stated on the negotiator's certificate and any subsequent lease instrument as representatives of the custom owners or disputing groups.

(3) In addition to subsection (1), if appropriate, the names of some women and young people should also be included on the negotiator's certificate and any subsequent lease instrument.

6H. Variation of the names of representatives

(1) All representatives of the custom owner group are appointed by the custom owners and must not act without the consent of the custom owners.

(2) Custom owners may at any time meet and pass a resolution by consensus to vary their representatives. All members of the custom owner group or all members listed as descendants if original members have died must be present at a meeting to vary the representatives of the custom owners.

(3) The custom owner group must inform a custom land officer of the date and time of a meeting of the custom owner group to vary the names of their representatives.

(4) The custom land officer must attend the meeting referred to in subsection (3) and record in writing, the resolution to vary the representatives of the custom owners. The resolution must be signed by all the custom owners and by the custom land officer as a witness to the signature of the custom owners.

(5) Any variation made to the names of the representatives of the custom owner group must be filed with the office of the National Coordinator.

6I. Process of approving the issuing of a negotiator's certificate

(1) The Committee must consider the report provided to it by the National Coordinator under paragraph 6E(a) and may approve the application to issue a negotiator's certificate if it is satisfied that the custom owners of the land have been satisfactorily identified and have consented, or in the case of disputing groups, each of the disputing groups have consented, to negotiate with the applicant.

(2) The approval of an application to negotiate may be given subject to such conditions as the Committee considers fit to impose, which, without limiting such conditions, must include conditions as to the following matters:

(a) execution by the custom owners and their representatives as set out in subsection 6G(1) or the Minister of Lands with the consent of the custom owners and acting on behalf of the disputing groups ; and

(b) a period, not exceeding 12 months, within which an agreement to lease land is to be completed; and

(c) how and by whom negotiations for a lease are to be conducted; and

(d) any preferred meeting arrangements, as suggested by custom owners; and

(e) that the approved negotiator cannot make any direct payments to individuals or the custom owner group, before the completion of the lease.

(3) To avoid doubt, paragraph 2(e) does not prohibit the approved negotiator from paying for the reasonable costs of convening meetings and associated transport costs.

(4) An approval by the Committee for the issuing of a negotiator's certificate by the Minister does not bind the Committee or the Minister to approve any subsequent lease or issue any other form of approval required by, or under, any law.

(5) The refusal by the Committee of an application for a negotiator's certificate under this section is final with respect to that application.

(6) The Committee must give the applicant, the National Coordinator and where relevant the custom owners notice of its decision within 10 days after making the decision

6J. Negotiation process and consent

(1) Upon the issuing of a negotiator's certificate under section 6, the approved negotiator may begin negotiations about the terms of the lease with the custom owners recognising that the names listed on the approval to negotiate are representatives of the custom owners and that all listed custom owners must consent to a lease.

(2) Upon completing a survey of the land to which the approval to negotiate relates, the approved negotiator must ensure that a valuation of the land is done by a registered land valuer under the Land Valuers Registration Act [CAP 289] and must disclose to the custom owners the contents of the valuation report.

(3) Once negotiations are complete and the terms of a draft lease document have been finalised, the applicant must inform the National Coordinator that such terms have been agreed and request the National Coordinator to take steps to confirm the agreement of the custom owners.

(4) If there is no dispute as to ownership of the land, the National Coordinator is to direct the custom land officer to conduct a meeting or meetings with the custom owners and any affected groups to confirm that the custom owners agree by consensus to the lease arrangements as set out in the lease documents and all other documents provided to the custom land officer by the negotiator.

(5) In approving the lease documents to be registered, it must be evident that:

(a) all of the custom owners who have been identified as a group by a recorded interest in land, as owning the land must consent to have the lease registered as shown by the consensus of the group to lease the land; and

(b) the custom owners understand the nature and purpose of the agreement and, as a group, consent to it; and

(c) any other community or group of indigenous citizens that may be affected by the agreement has had an adequate opportunity to express its views to the custom owner group; and

(d) the agreement of the custom owners to the proposed lease instrument will be evident by the signing of the lease instrument by representatives of the custom owners.

(6) If there is a dispute as to ownership of the land the National Coordinator is to direct the custom land officer to conduct a meeting or meetings with all parties to the dispute to confirm that the custom owners of each of the parties to the dispute consent to the lease arrangements as set out in the lease documents, and all other documents, as provided to the custom land officer by the negotiator.

(7) In approving the lease documents to be registered, it must be evident that:

(a) all of the custom owners of each of the parties to the dispute identified under section 6B agree by consensus to the lease being registered as shown by the signing of the proposed lease instrument by the representatives of the custom owners; and

(b) the custom owners of each of the parties to the dispute understand the nature and purpose of the agreement and, as a group, consent to it; and

(c) any other community or group of indigenous citizens that may be affected by the agreement has had an adequate opportunity to express its views to the custom owners.

(8) For the purposes of subsection (4), paragraphs (5)(c) and (7)(c):

“affected groups” must include, but are not limited to all women and young people living in the area concerned , any indigenous citizens who are not custom owners and any community in whose locality the land is situated.

(9) The National Coordinator must within 10 days, upon completion of the consultations held under subsection (4), present:

(a) a written report to the Chairperson of the Committee as to whether the custom owners, or potential custom owners, have consented to register the lease arrangement over their land with the negotiator; and

(b) the proposed lease instrument to the Chairperson with signatures of the representatives of the custom owners. In the case of a dispute this will require the signatures of the representatives of the custom owners from each of the disputing parties.

(10) In addition to subsection (9), the report must contain the:

(a) date and time of any meetings of the custom owners; and

(b) names of all persons who attended the meeting; and

(c) location of the meeting; and

(d) decision recorded as the outcome of the meeting.

(11) If a meeting has been held by the custom owners with other affected groups affected stated in subsection (4), paragraph (5)(c) and 7(c), the National Coordinator must present a report to the Chairperson of the Committee setting out the:

(a) date and time of the meeting; and

(b) names of all people in attendance at the meeting; and

(c) location of the meeting; and

(d) decision recorded as the outcome of the meeting.

6K. Notification of intention to register lease instrument

(1) If the Chairperson of the Committee receives a report from the National Coordinator under subsection 6J(9) that confirms that the custom owners have agreed to the lease instrument, the Chairperson must:

(a) arrange for the notice of intention to register such lease to be given in the following manner:

(i) on at least 3 occasions in 1 month, a notice in English, French and Bislama is to be:

(A) broadcasted on the radio at the time of the announcement of service messages; and

(B) published as part of a table produced by the Director of Lands in the newspaper which includes a description of the area of location, size of land and nearby localities for all lease registration applications for the month; and

(ii) direct the responsible custom land officer to make arrangements to place the notice at the Provincial Government Council Headquarters, the nearest Area Council Headquarters, the nearest Sub-Area Council Headquarters (if applicable) and at any village or villages located near the land for at least 1 month; and

(iii) direct the responsible custom land officer to make arrangements to place the notice on the land to which the proposed lease relates for at least 1 month.

(2) The notices referred to in paragraph (1)(a) must identify the land in a manner that will be understood by the people of that island and require any person, who considers that the process to obtain consent has not been properly observed, to lodge a complaint with the Land Ombudsman in accordance with section 6N.

(3) The signage associated with this notice must:

(a) be in large black font on a white background; and

(b) be placed facing the nearest public road or pathway; and

(c) measure at least 2 meters long and 1 meter wide; and

(d) include all details associated with the lease registration application.

6L. Appointment of the Land Ombudsman

(1) The Land Ombudsman is to be appointed by the Judicial Services Commission for a period of 5 years and is eligible for reappointment.

(2) A person is disqualified for appointment as Land Ombudsman if he or she:

(a) is a member of Parliament, the Malvatumauri Council of Chiefs or a Provincial Government Council; or

(b) holds any public office; or

(c) exercises a position of responsibility within a political party.

(3) The Land Ombudsman must be a person who:

(a) has knowledge, understanding and appreciation of the culture, traditions and values of indigenous citizens; and

(b) has an understanding of land laws in Vanuatu; and

(c) is of high integrity and competence; and

(d) has an appropriate academic qualification and suitable experience in the public or private sector; and

(e) is politically independent; and

(f) is capable of discharging his or her duties without fear or favour; and

(g) has not been convicted and sentenced on a criminal charge (not being a road traffic offence); and

(h) is of high standing in the community.

(4) The Land Ombudsman is a leader for the purposes of the Leadership Code Act [CAP 240] and Chapter 10 of the Constitution of the Republic of Vanuatu.

6M. Termination of the appointment of the Land Ombudsman

(1) The Judicial Services Commission may terminate the appointment of the Land Ombudsman if the Ombudsman is:

(a) declared bankrupt; or

(b) convicted and sentenced on a criminal charge (not being a road traffic offence);
or

(c) incapacitated from performing his or her duties because of illness or an accident, as certified by two medical practitioners; or

(d) convicted of an offence under the Leadership Code Act [CAP 240].

(2) The Land Ombudsman must be given a reasonable opportunity to respond to any allegations being made against him or her before the Judicial Services Commission decides whether or not to terminate his or her appointment.

6N. Lodging complaints with the Land Ombudsman

A custom owner, or any other indigenous citizen who is not satisfied that the proper process has been followed in obtaining the consent of the custom owners for the registration of a new lease, or a subdivision or change of lease type for an existing lease, has the right within 1 month from notification of intent to register or seek Ministerial consent under section 6K to lodge a complaint either orally or in writing with the Land Ombudsman on the following grounds:

(a) that the meeting of the custom owners was not properly constituted; or

(b) that the custom owners do not consent to the lease being registered or to the subdivision or the change of lease type; or

(c) that the custom owners did not understand the nature and purpose of the agreement; or

(d) that some other community or group of indigenous citizens that may be affected by the agreement has not had an adequate opportunity to express its views to the custom owners.

6O. Functions of the Land Ombudsman

(1) The function of the Land Ombudsman is to investigate any complaint made to him or her provided that it complies with the grounds listed in section 6N.

(2) Upon receipt of a complaint the Land Ombudsman must within 21 days, or as soon as practicable:

(a) review all reports, lease documents and all other available materials; and

(b) discuss all reports, as is necessary, with the National Coordinator or the relevant custom land officer; and

(c) investigate, as is necessary, the substance of the complaint.

(3) The Land Ombudsman must notify the Director of Lands:

(a) to place a caution on the lease instrument, where one exists, in accordance with section 95 of the Land Leases Act [CAP 163] until such time as the investigation of the Land Ombudsman is completed; or

(b) that any applications for registration of a lease instrument must not be progressed until such time as the investigation of the Land Ombudsman is complete.

(4) Upon completion of this review the Land Ombudsman must submit a report to the Chairperson of the Committee, the National Coordinator and the Director of Lands, into the complaint, and must make a recommendation as to whether the lease should be registered.

(5) If upon completion of his or her review into a complaint made by a custom owner or small proportion of the custom owners, the Land Ombudsman concludes that the complaint is vexatious or without basis and that the view of the overwhelming majority of custom owners is that the application should proceed, the Land Ombudsman may then make a recommendation that the lease should be registered.

(6) If the Chairman of the Committee, the National Coordinator or the Director of Lands fails to act on a reasonable or practical recommendation made by the Land Ombudsman this will allow the interested party to apply for a Judicial Review.

6P. Powers of the Land Ombudsman

The Land Ombudsman has power to do all things that are necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with the performance of his or her functions.

6Q. Investigative powers of the Land Ombudsman

(1) The Land Ombudsman must, if possible, by an informal request to any person, obtain evidence and information for the purposes of investigating a complaint.

(2) In addition to subsection (1), the Land Ombudsman may request evidence or information from the National Coordinator, the Director of Lands or any officer employed under the supervision of the National Coordinator or the Director of Lands. The National Coordinator or the Director must ensure that the evidence or information requested is provided to the Land Ombudsman within 14 days from the day on which the request is received.

(3) Failure to comply in a timely manner with any reasonable request made by the Land Ombudsman under subsection (2), could result in the Director of Lands or an officer of the Department of Lands who is deemed responsible being prosecuted in accordance with paragraph (7)(b).

(4) The Land Ombudsman may issue a notice in writing in the prescribed form to any person who is either:

(a) required to appear before the Land Ombudsman for examination to give evidence at a hearing; or

(b) required to provide any information or documentary evidence to the Land Ombudsman which is needed for an investigation.

(5) If a person is required to appear before the Land Ombudsman to give evidence in accordance with paragraph (4)(a), he or she may request that:

(a) the hearing be recorded; and

(b) the person's legal representative or another person be present at the hearing.

(6) If a hearing has been recorded, any person who has given evidence at a hearing may request a copy of the recording from the Land Ombudsman.

(7) A person commits an offence if the person who having been served with a notice under subsection (4) or having been requested by the Land Ombudsman under subsections (1) or (2) to give evidence or information for purposes of an investigation:

(a) fails or refuses to appear before the Land Ombudsman; or

(b) fails or refuses to provide any information or documents to the Land Ombudsman.

6R. Immunity

(1) No action in civil or criminal proceedings is to be brought against the Land Ombudsman or an employee of the Land Ombudsman in respect of anything done or omitted to be done by him or her in good faith in the execution or purported executions of his or her functions and powers under this Act.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the Land Ombudsman or the employee acted, in bad faith in executing his or her functions or powers under this Act or in dereliction of his or her functions under this Act.

6S. Offences against the Land Ombudsman

(1) A person commits an offence if the person:

(a) improperly influences, hinders or obstructs, or attempts to improperly influence, hinder or obstruct, the Land Ombudsman in the exercise of his or her powers or the performance of his or her functions under this Act; or

(b) gives false or misleading evidence in any hearing being conducted by the Land Ombudsman.

(2) A person who commits an offence under paragraph (1)(a) or (b) is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding VT 10,000,000 or a term of imprisonment of not more than 6 months or both.

(3) The prosecution of an offence under this section must not occur without a written direction of the Land Ombudsman.

6T. Decision as to registration of lease instrument

(1) If:

(a) the period of the notice of intention to register a lease or a subdivision or change of lease type has lapsed and no complaint is lodged with the Land Ombudsman; or

(b) the Chairperson of the Committee receives a report of the Land Ombudsman, the Chairperson must within 10 days, or as soon as practicable, convene a meeting of the Committee to consider whether to recommend for approval registration of the lease instrument which has been negotiated by the approved negotiator.

(2) The Committee must recommend to the Minister to approve the registration of a lease if it is satisfied that:

(a) the processes specified under this Act have been complied with; and

(b) the lease takes account of any registered custom sites, as determined by the Vanuatu National Cultural Council; and

(c) the lease complies with any planning requirements under any other Acts; and

(d) an approval for foreshore development has been obtained where necessary, under the Foreshore Development Act [CAP 90]; and

(g) all terms and conditions of the lease meet the legal requirements as assessed by the Chairperson of the Committee.

(3) In considering whether the registration of the lease should be recommended for consent by the Minister, each agency represented on the Committee must agree that the legal processes of their respective agencies have been completed under this Act or any other Act, and that there is no impediment to the lease being registered.

(4) A recommendation of the Committee to register a lease under this section does not bind the Minister to register any subsequent lease or issue any other form of approval required by or under any other Act.

(5) To avoid doubt, the Minister must not approve the registration of a lease that has not been recommended for approval by the Committee.

(6) If the Committee is satisfied that the lease meets the requirements for registration, the Committee must recommend to the Minister to consent to the lease, and such recommendation must be presented to the Minister within 10 days after the decision of the Committee is made.

(7) If the Minister receives the recommendation under subsection (6), the Minister must approve the registration of the lease and notify the negotiator that the lease is to be registered.

(8) The Minister must not unreasonably withhold his or her consent for registration of a lease if he or she receives a recommendation for approval of a lease under subsection (6).

(9) If the Committee is not satisfied that the lease should be recommended for registration, it may:

(a) require the negotiator to provide additional information; or

(b) pass a resolution to recommend to the Minister that the lease must not be approved for registration.

(10) The Director must inform a negotiator that a lease has not been approved for registration if the Committee has passed a resolution under paragraph 9(b).

6U. Application for a rural subdivision or change of lease type

(1) A person may apply to the Chairperson of the Committee if he or she intends to create a subdivision or change of lease type in a rural area.

(2) An application under subsection (1) must be in the prescribed form and be accompanied by the prescribed fee.

(iv) what evidence is available to prove that the applicant has a good commercial reputation; and

(v) what other development approvals or permissions have been obtained or may be required.

(6) In addition to subsection (5), an application for a rural subdivision must detail the size of the proposed area for subdivision, the location of the area, the number of new leases to be created, the size of new leases to be created and any park or communal areas.

(7) A person must not subdivide a land in a rural area unless the Minister grants his or her consent for the subdivision to occur.

(8) A person must not survey land in a rural area unless he or she has first obtained the consent of the custom owners in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(9) To avoid doubt, no new activity must occur on a lease unless the Minister grants his or her consent on the lease.

(10) The Chairperson, upon receipt of an application made in accordance with subsections (4) and (5), must, within 7 days, or as soon as practicable, submit the application to the Committee for its consideration.

(11) The Committee may recommend an application for approval if agreed to by the custom owners in accordance with the following consent provisions:

(a) for a lease that has been created after the commencement of this Act-all matters are to be referred to the National Coordinator to ensure custom owner identification and consent of custom owners in accordance with the process set out in sections 6B and 6C of this Act. The National Coordinator, upon completion of the consultations under section 6C, must within 10 days table:

(i) a written report to the Chairperson of the Committee as to whether the custom owners, or potential custom owners, have consented to the subdivision or change of lease type over their land with the applicant in accordance with section 6C; and

(ii) the proposed consent to subdivision or change of lease type in an instrument with the signatures of the representatives of the custom owners. In the case of a dispute this will require the signatures of the representatives of the custom owners of each of the disputing groups;

(b) for a lease that has been created before the commencement of this Act - the custom owners are the lessors as described in the registered lease instrument;

(c) for a lease where the Minister is the registered lessor, or where the lease transaction is subject to a dispute- consent must be obtained from the custom owners of each of the disputing groups in accordance with the process detailed in section 6Z.

(12) The applicant must table with the Chairperson of the Committee all documents required under section 11.

6V. Notification of intention to grant Ministerial consent to a rural subdivision or change of lease type

(1) If the Chairperson of the Committee receives the relevant documentation listed in subsections 6U (5) and (6) and is satisfied that the custom owners of the land have consented to the application for a subdivision or a change of lease type, the Chairperson must:

(a) arrange for the notice of intention to consent to subdivision or change of lease type to be given as follows:

(i) at least on 3 occasions in a month, a notice written in English, French and Bislama is to be broadcasted on the national radio; and

(ii) published as part of a table produced by the Director of Lands in the newspaper which includes a description of the area of location, size of land and nearby localities for all applications for a subdivision or change of lease type for the month; and

(iii) require the responsible custom land officer to make arrangements to place the notice referred to under subparagraph (i) and (ii) for not more than 1 month at the relevant Provincial Government Council Headquarter, the nearest Area Council Headquarter, the nearest Sub-Area Council Headquarters (if applicable) and at any village or villages located near the land.

(2) The signage associated with the notice in subparagraph (1)(a)(iii) must:

(a) be in large black font on a white background; and

(b) be placed facing the nearest public road or pathway; and

(c) measure at least 2 meters long and 1 meter wide; and

(d) include all details associated with the application for a rural subdivision or change of lease type.

(3) The notice must identify the land in a manner that will be understood by the people of that island and require any person who considers that the process to obtain consent has not been properly observed to lodge a complaint with the Land Ombudsman in accordance with section 6N.

6W. Decision as to Ministerial consent to a rural subdivision or change of lease type

(1) If the notification period of the intention to consent to a subdivision or change of lease type has lapsed and no complaint is lodged with the Land Ombudsman, or if a report of the Land Ombudsman is received by the Chairperson of the Committee, the Chairperson of the Committee must, within 10 days, or as soon as practicable, convene a meeting of the Committee.

(2) At the meeting, the Committee must consider whether it should recommend for approval, the registration of the subdivision or change of lease type.

(3) The Committee must recommend registration only if it is satisfied that:

(a) all the processes specified for obtaining consent of the custom owners and notification have been complied with under this Act;

(b) there are no potential access issues, including what access custom owners and members of the public have in relation to roads, foreshores, gardens, beaches, sea, rivers, lakes, cultural sites and places of historical interest after the application for subdivision or change of a lease type is registered;

(c) the subdivision or change of lease type takes into account any registered custom sites, as determined by the Vanuatu National Cultural Council;

(d) the subdivision or change of lease type meets with all planning requirements;

(e) any approvals for foreshore developments have been obtained, as required;

(f) any Environmental Impact Assessment as required under the Environmental Management and Conservation Act has been completed;

(g) a fair and equitable valuation of the custom land has been completed by a registered land valuer under the Land Valuers Registration Act [CAP 289].

(4) In considering whether the registration of the lease should be recommended for approval, a person representing an agency on the Committee must be satisfied that the legal processes of his or her agency have been completed under this Act or any other Act, and that there is no impediment to the lease being registered.

(5) A recommendation of the Committee for approval of a subdivision or change of lease type under this section does not bind the Minister to register any subsequent ministerial consent or issue any other form of approval required by, or under, any law.

(6) The Minister must not consent to a subdivision or change of lease type that has not been approved by the Committee.

(7) If the Committee recommends that ministerial consent should be given to a subdivision or change of lease type, then the Committee must pass a resolution recommending to the Minister that the subdivision or change of lease type be approved, and such recommendation must be forwarded to the Minister within 10 days after the decision of the Committee was made.

(8) If the Minister receives the recommendation, the Minister must approve the subdivision or change of lease type and notify the applicant that the subdivision or change of lease type is to be registered.

(9) The Minister must not unreasonably withhold his or her consent to the registration of the subdivision or change of lease type if there is recommendation by the Committee that a subdivision or change of lease type should be approved.

(10) If the Committee is not satisfied that the subdivision or change of lease type should be registered, it may:

(a) adjourn further consideration of the lease to enable additional information to be provided; or

(b) pass a resolution recommending to the Minister that the subdivision or change of lease type not be approved.

(11) The refusal by the Committee of an application under this section is final however the applicant may re-apply for a subdivision or change of lease type in relation to the same area of land.

(12) The Committee must give written notice of its decision within 10 days from the day of making the decision to the applicant, the relevant custom owners and the National Coordinator.
